CHAPTER-II
REGISTRATION OF ESTABLISHMENTS

3. Registration of establishment and application for registration -

Within thirty days from the date of enforcement of these rules in the case of an establishment existing on that day and within thirty days from the date of commencement of the business in the case of a new establishment the employer of every establishment shall apply for registration under the Act to the Chief Inspector or the officer authorized by him in this behalf in Form 'A' prescribed for the purpose in duplicate and in print together with the original copy of the treasury challan depositing the requisite amount of fees as specified in Schedule- I

Provided that the State Government may, in relaxation of the provision of this rule, allow the employer of a particular establishment, if satisfied with the reasons furnished by him, to get his establishment registered or the registration of his establishment renewed on or before a date specified in the order issued in this behalf.

4. Register of shops and establishments -

The Chief Inspector or the officer authorized by him in this behalf shall maintain a Register of Shops and Establishments in Form 'B' which shall consist of three Parts as follows:

Part I Shops.

Part II Commercial Establishments.

Part III Establishment for Public Entertainment or Amusement

5. Issue of Certificate of Registration -

On receipt of the application in the prescribed Form 'A' and the original copy of the treasury challan depositing the fees, the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf shall on being satisfied about the correctness of the statement made in the application, register the establishment in the appropriate part of the Register of Shops and Establishments and shall, in the prescribed Form 'C' issue Certificate of Registration to the employer:

Provided that a certificate of Registration shall be valid upto a period of twelve months only from the date of issue unless renewed thereafter.

6. Display of notices and certificate of registration.

- (1) Any notice or certificate required to be exhibited under the Act or the rules shall be exhibited in such a manner that it is readily seen and can be read at ease by any person whom it concerns and shall be replaced by a fresh one whenever it becomes defaced or ceases to be legible.
- (2) Every employer in an establishment shall display the Certificate of Registration or the Renewed Certificate of Registration, as the case may be, issued under rule 5 in a conspicuous place in the establishment.

7. Renewal of certificate of registration. -

An application for the renewal of a Certificate of Registration shall be submitted in the prescribed Form 'A' within three months after the date of expiry of the Certificate of Registration, as the case may be and shall be accompanied by the current Certificate of Registration together with the original receipt of depositing such fees as are prescribed in Schedule I and the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf shall, on being satisfied about the correctness of the statement, issue the renewed Certificate of Registration in the prescribed Form 'C' after making relevant entries in the appropriate part of the Register of Shops and Establishment.

8. Notice of change in Establishments.

- (1) It shall be the duty of every employer in an establishment to notify to the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf, in the prescribed Form 'D' together with the original receipt of depositing the requisite fees, for any change in respect of any particulars contained in the statement submitted under sub-rule (1) of rule 3 within two months after the change has taken place.
- (2) The Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf on receiving the prescribed notice of change together with the original receipt of depositing the required fees shall, on being specified about the correctness of the change of particulars, make the required change in the Register of Shops and Establishments, in accordance with such notice and shall amend the current Certificate of Registration or issue a fresh Certificate of Registration, if necessary.

9. Notice of winding-up of establishments. -

- (1) The employer shall, within ten days of the winding-up of the business of his establishment notify to the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf in the prescribed Form 'E' accompanied by the Certificate of Registration. The Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf, on receiving the information of the closure of the establishment and on being satisfied about its correctness, remove the name of such establishment from the Register of Shops and Establishments and cancel the Certificate of Registration:
- (2) Provided that if the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf does not receive any written information about the winding-up of the business of an establishment, but he is otherwise satisfied that the establishment has been wound-up, he may remove the name of such establishment from the Register of Shops and Establishments and cancel the Certificate of Registration.

Explanation. - Every case where an establishment is closed for a continuous period of three months or more shall be treated for the purpose of this rule as a case of winding-up of the business of that establishment.

10. Loss of Certificate of Registration. -

If any Certificate of Registration issued under rule 5 or a renewed Certificate of Registration issued under rule 7 is lost, destroyed or defaced the employer shall forthwith report the matter and make an application in the prescribed Form 'F' accompanied by the original receipt depositing the required fees specified in Schedule I and the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf shall issue a duplicate copy of the Certificate of Registration duly stamped with the words 'DUPLICATE' in red ink.

- (1) In case the ownership of an establishment is transferred the employer shall, within two months of such transfer, notify the fact of transfer and surrender the Certificate of Registration or the renewed Certificate of Registration, as the case may be, to the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf along with a signed statement specifying the name and address of the transferee.

- (2) The Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf, on being satisfied about the correctness of the statement relating to transfer, shall cancel the Certificate of Registration or the Renewed Certificate of Registration as the case may be, by making necessary alterations in the Register of Shops and Establishments.
- (3) The employer of the establishment so transferred shall apply for a new Certificate of Registration as provided in the Act and these rules.

13. Enquiry in connection with registration, renewal, etc. -

The Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf may, for the purpose of satisfying himself about the correctness of any particulars contained in any statement made under these rules in any application or notice, hold such inquiry as he deems necessary and in such manner as he considers fit.

14. Mode of payment of fees. -

All fees to be paid by the employer of an establishment under the provisions of these rules shall be credited to the Account of the Mizoram Shops and Establishments, Department of Labour, Employment & Industrial Training for registration under this rules, and the original copy of the receipt depositing the requisite amount of fees shall be forwarded by the employer to the Chief Inspector or the officer authorized by him in this behalf accompanied by the prescribed application form duly filled in and signed.

15. Finality of decision in matters of doubt, etc. -

In the event of any doubt or difference of opinion as to the manner of registration and renewal of Certificate or payment of fees or the category to which an establishment should belong the officer authorized by the Chief Inspector to do the registration etc. shall refer the matter to the Chief Inspector who shall, after such inquiry as he thinks proper, decide the issue and the decision of the Chief Inspector shall be final for the purpose of this Act and these rules.

CHAPTER -III HOURS OF WORK

16. Register of hours of work and interval for rest. -

Every employer in an establishment shall maintain a register in Form 'G' showing the daily and weekly hours of work and hours of interval for rest against the name of each employee and also the hours of opening and closing of an establishment.

17. Register of overtime work and payment of overtime wages. -

Every employer in an establishment shall maintain a register in Form 'H' showing the overtime work done in every month by each employee and the amount of overtime wages the employee is entitled to and paid under the Act.

18. Overtime Slip

In addition to recording the full particulars of the overtime work done by an employee on any day in the register prescribed for the purpose, over-time slips in Form 'I' shall be issued to an employee immediately after overtime work is done by him on each occasion by the employer concerned under his own signature or under the signature of any other person authorized by him to do so on his behalf by general or special order:

Provided that copies of such general or special orders shall be pasted on the Notice Board of the establishment for information of the employees concerned.

CHAPTER- IV HOLIDAYS

19. Notice of weekly closure of Shops.

- (1) Every employer of a shop shall display closure notice in Form 'J' specifying the day of the week on which the shop shall remain entirely closed.
- (2) Every employer of a shop before displaying the weekly closure notice in Form 'J' shall submit the said notice with the required entries in duplicate to the Inspector of shops and establishments within whose jurisdiction the shop is situated and the inspector shall, on receipt of the Forms duly filled in and on being satisfied about the correctness of the entries made therein, countersign them and shall, after retaining one copy thereof for his office record, return the other copy to the employer for display in the shop as required under the Act.

20. Notice of Weekly Holidays in Establishments.

- (1) The employer in all the establishments and commercial establishments as specified under sub-section 5 and 9 of section 2 of section 2 of the Act, shall display in the establishment a Notice in Form 'K' specifying the one and a half days in each week during which every employee in the establishment shall be allowed holidays.
- (2) Every employer in a commercial establishment or an establishment for public entertainment or amusement, before displaying the Notice in Form 'K' shall submit the said Notice with the required entries in duplicate to the Inspector within whose jurisdiction the establishment is situated and the Inspector shall, on receipt of the Forms duly filled in and on being satisfied about the correctness of the entries made therein, countersign the Forms and shall, after retaining one copy thereof for his office record return the other copy to the employer for display in the establishment.
- (3) The one and a half of Weekly Holidays so determined by the employer of an establishment shall be continuous and shall not be altered more than once in any year.

21. Restriction on double employment. -

No employee shall work in any establishment, nor shall any employer knowingly permit an employee to work in any establishment, on a day on which the employee is given a holiday or is on leave in accordance with the provisions of the Act and these Rules.

CHAPTER- V LEAVE

22. Privilege Leave.

- (1) Every employee in an establishment desiring to avail of any privilege leave which is due to his credit under the Act, shall make an application in writing at least seven days prior to the intended commencement of such leave and the employer shall issue orders on the application within three days of submission:

Provided that the employer may, if satisfied that the leave is required for urgent matters waive the period of seven days' notice and pass orders, accordingly.

- (2) Leave due and prayed for shall not be refused and no part of the privilege leave earned by an employee in an establishment shall be allowed to lapse by the refusal of the employer to grant such leave:

Provided that the employer may regulate the grant of privilege leave according to convenience of work in the establishment:

Provided further that all refused privilege leave shall accumulate without any limit.

- (3) Every employee who has been allowed leave under sub-rule (1) above shall, on demand, before his leave begins be paid by the employer half the total amount of wages due to him for the period of such leave.

23. Casual leave. -

Ordinarily Casual Leave of absence shall not be admissible for more than five days at a time and previous permission in writing of the employer shall be obtained before such leave is availed of.

Provided that when it is not possible to obtain such previous permission the employer shall, as may be practicable, be informed in writing of the absence from duty and the probable duration of such absence with reasons thereof.

24 Medical leave. -

Grant or extension of medical leave on grounds of sickness incurred or accident sustained, if due shall not be refused when prayed for in writing by or on behalf of an employee supported by a certificate from a registered medical practitioner.

Provided that the employer may, if he so thinks fit and undertakes or defrays the cost involved, require the employee by an order in writing to be examined by the nearest Health Officer under the State Government, and if the employee refuses to submit to such examination or is certified on such examination he/she is certified to be fit for duty, the employer may refuse the leave or extension thereof as the case may be.

25. Combination of medical leave with privilege leave. -

Leave on medical certificate allowed under Rule 24 above may be combined with privilege leave if due under the Act.

26. Prohibition of alteration of nature of leave. -

The employer shall not alter the nature of leave applied for by the employee.

27. Intimation of employee's address on leave.-

Every employee praying for privilege or medical leave shall intimate to the employer his address during the period of leave and if there is any change of the address so communicated, that shall be intimated within three days of such change.

28. Extension of leave. -

If an employee after proceeding on leave desires an extension thereof, he shall apply in writing to the employer, and the latter shall send a written reply either granting or refusing the extension of leave to the applicant at the address last given by him.

29. Unauthorized absence.

- (1) If an employee remains absent without leave or beyond the period of leave originally granted or subsequently extended, the employer shall, before taking any disciplinary action against the absentee employee issue a notice requiring him to explain in writing -the reasons of his absence within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice.
- (2) If on receipt of the notice referred to in sub-rule (1) above, the absentee employee explains the reasons of his absence to the satisfaction of the employer, the latter may regularize the period of unauthorized absence by grant of such leave as may be due to the employee and treat the remaining period of absence, if any, as leave of absence without wages; and where the explanation given by the employee is considered not satisfactory, the employer may either treat the period of unauthorized absence of the employee as absence without wages even though leave with wages may be due to him or terminate his lien on service, depending on the seriousness and gravity of the case.
- (3) If the employee does not submit any explanation to the employer within the time limit given in the notice referred to in sub-rule (1) above, the latter may terminate the lien of the person employed on his service.
- (4) The notice referred to in sub-rule (1) above shall be served by registered post to the address given under Rule 27 or in its absence, to the address last given by the persons employed.

CHAPTER- VI
PRESCRIBED AUTHORITY AND NOTICE OF DISMISSALS

30. Continuous employment for six months. -

An employee shall be deemed to have completed a period of six months continuous service within the meaning of sub-section (2) of Section 18 of the Act, notwithstanding any interruption in service during those six months brought about (a) by sickness accident or authorized leave (including authorized holidays and weekly holidays) not exceeding forty-five days in the aggregate, or (b) by a lock out, or (c) by a strike which is not an illegal strike or (d) by intermittent periods of involuntary unemployment not exceeding fifteen days in the aggregate, and authorized leave shall be deemed not to include any weekly holiday allowed under this Act, which occurs, at the beginning or end of interruption brought about by the leave.

31. Time within which appeal can be submitted.

- (1) An employee, whose service has been dispensed with for an alleged contravention of the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 18 of the Act may, within thirty days of the date of termination of service, make an appeal to the appellate authority.
- (2) The appellate authority may, however, entertain an appeal after the expiry of the aforesaid period of thirty days if he is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within such period.

32. Procedure for hearing of appeal.

- (1) The appellate authority, on receipt of the memorandum of appeal and on being satisfied that there is a prima facie case showing alleged contravention, shall fix a date for the hearing of the appeal by giving due notice in Form 'L' to the appellant and in Form 'M' to the employer, whose order is appealed against to appear in person or by a duly authorized agent and shall, after giving both the parties fair and full opportunity of being heard and making such further enquiry as he may deem fit, dispose of the appeal in the manner required under the provisions of the Act as expeditiously as possible.

- (2) The decision or the order of the Appellate Authority shall be recorded in Form 'N' and it shall be carried out by the employer concerned within the period specified by the appellate authority.

33. Recovery of sums of money under section 18. -

When any sum of money is due from an employer under sub-section (4) or (6) of section 18, and the amount has not been paid by the employer within such period as may be fixed by the appellate authority in his order, the latter shall issue a certificate to the Collector who shall recover it as arrears of land revenue with utmost expedition.

34. Issue of appointment letters to employees. -

Every employer in an establishment shall furnish every employee with a letter of appointment with a copy to the Chief Inspector to his official Address, by a registered post, with acknowledgement due and to the Inspector of the area in which the establishment is situated and it shall be effective from the actual date of employment in Form 'O' in the case of every person who is:-

- (i) already in the employ of the establishment within thirty days from the date on which these rules come into force, and
- (ii) employed in the establishment after these rules come into force and before the person so employed commences work,

Provided that it shall not be necessary for an employer to issue such letter of appointment to an employee who is already in the employ and has already been furnished with a letter of appointment in any other form substantially containing the particulars specified in the Form.

35. Employee's liability to give prior notice:

An employee in an establishment who has put in three months' service shall have to give fifteen days' notice in writing before quitting his job and in default, the employee may forfeit to the maximum his seven days' unpaid wages.

CHAPTER- VII EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSON

36. Evidence as to age of an employee.

- (1) In respect of an employee in an establishment the Chief Inspector or the inspector of the area within whose Jurisdiction the establishment is situated may, at any time, in writing require the employer to produce at his own cost within such time, not being less than ten days from the date of the requisition, one of the following documents showing the age of such person employed, namely a certified copy of an extract from:
  - (i) The records of any School;
  - (ii) The Birth Register of Local Authority;
- (2) In the case of the employer's failure to produce either of the Documents required under sub-rule (1) above the Chief Inspector or the Inspector shall, at the cost of the employer, arrange to determine the age of the person employed through medical examination by the District Health Officer of the area or by any other competent medical officer not below that rank.

CHAPTER- VIII

46. Determination of employer for the purposes of the Rules.

Where the owner of an establishment is a firm or any other association of individuals, any one of the individual partners or members thereof, may be prosecuted and punished under these rules for any offences for which an employer in an establishment is punishable:

Provided that the firm or association may give notice to the Inspector that it has nominated one of its members who is resident in the State to be the employer for the purposes of these rules and such individual shall, so long as he is so resident, be deemed to be the employer for the purposes of these rules, until further notice cancelling the nomination received by the Inspector or until he ceases to be a partner or member of the firm or association.

- (2) Where the owner of an establishment is a public limited Company, any one of the directors thereof, or in the case of a private company, may be prosecuted and punished under these Rules for an offence for which the employer in an establishment is punishable:

Provided that the company may give notice to the Inspector that it has nominated a director, or, in the case of a private company, a shareholder who is resident in the State, to be the employer in the establishment for the purposes of these rules, and such director, or shareholder shall so long as he is so establishment for the purposes of these rules, until further notice canceling his nomination is received by the Inspector or until he ceases to be a director or shareholder.

47. Exemption of employer for liability in certain cases.

- (1) Where the employer of an establishment is charged with an offence for violation of these rules or orders made thereunder, he shall be entitled upon complaint duly made by him, to have any other person, whom he charges as the actual offender, brought before the court at the time appointed for hearing the charge; and if, after the commission of the offence has been proved, the employer proves to the satisfaction of the court:
  - (i) that he has used due diligence to enforce the execution of these rules; and
  - (ii) that the said other person committed the offence in question against his orders and without his knowledge, consent or connivance; that other person shall be convicted of the offence and shall be liable to the like fine as if he were the employer.

48. Penalty for obstructing Inspector. -

Whoever willfully obstructs an Inspector in the exercise of any power under these rules or any person lawfully assisting an Inspector in the exercise of such power or refuses without reasonable cause to comply with any lawful direction made by an establishment from appearing before or being examined by an Inspector, shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

CHAPTER- XI
MISCELLANEOUS

49. Maintenance of register of employment.

- (1) Every employer in an establishment shall maintain a register of employment in Form 'R'
- (2) All information in the register of employment shall be kept and maintained up-to-date and corrections, as and when necessary, shall be made within three days from the date any change takes place.
- (3) The register of employment kept and maintained in the prescribed Form 'R' shall bear the signature of the employee and the employer shall authenticate the entries under his signature.
- (4) If an application made by an employer in writing the Chief Inspector is satisfied that any muster roll, register or record already maintained by the employer substantially contains in respect of all or any of the employees in his establishment the particulars required to be shown in any register, record or notice referred to in these rules, the Chief Inspector may, by order in writing, direct that such muster roll, register or record shall, to the corresponding extent be maintained in place of such register, record or notice. A copy of the Chief Inspector's order to this effect shall be forwarded to the Inspector of the area within whose jurisdiction the establishment is situated.

50. Register of leave. -

The employer shall maintain a Register of Leave in Form 'S' and particulars of application for leave, whether granted or refused, shall be entered in the corresponding part of the register against the name of the employee immediately after receipt of the application.

51. Leave card.

- (1) The employer shall provide each employee with a card called the 'Leave Card' in the same Form 'S' as the form of the Register of Leave but a separate card shall be made for each employee on a thick sheet which shall be the property of the employee and the employer shall not demand it except to make entries therein and shall not keep it for more than a week at a time.
- (2) If any employee loses the Leave Card, the employer shall provide him with another copy on payment of ten rupees and shall complete it from the records in Leave Register.

52. Liability of employer for maintenance and preservation of records and display of notices.

- (1) Every employer shall on demand from an Inspector produce for inspection all registers, records and notices required to be kept, and maintained under and for the purpose of these rules on the premises of the establishment to which they relate.
- (2) The registers and records required to be kept and maintained under these rules shall be maintained regularly and legibly in English or Mizo, and the date entered shall be in accordance with the English Calendar and shall be so preserved that the records and registers of every year continue to remain for at least a full period or three successive years.

Provided that office copies of all the appointment letters issued by the employer to the employees must be preserved for at least three successive years after superannuation/ retirement/ termination/dismissal /resignation of an employee.

- (3) Every such register shall be serially page marked and well bound.
- (4) In any register or record which an employer is required to maintain under these rules, the entries relating to any day shall be made on that very day and shall be authenticated by the employer or the manager, as the case may be, by putting his signature against them:

Provided that in case the employer or the manager is absent on any day the entries shall be authenticated by such person as may be authorized to do so by the employer.

53. Suspension of the provision of the Act. -

The Government may suspend the operation of the Act on account of the following holidays or occasion, namely:

- (a) Chapchar Kut
- (b) Good Friday
- (c) Diwali
- (d) Christmas
- (e) Id-UI-Fitr
- (f) Any other occasion as may be specified by the Government.

54. Manner of computing the money value of meals and concessional supply of food grains and other articles.

- (1) The price of meals of the type and standard actually made available to an employee by his employer in terms of the contract of service, expressed or implied, charged in the nearest hotel or restaurant, as the case may be, immediately before the date on which overtime work is done or the leave commences shall be regarded as the money for the purpose of calculating either the leave wages or the overtime wages as the case may be.

- (2) For the purpose of computing the money value of food grains and other articles supplied or made available to a particular employee in a wage period, the difference between the prices of food grains and other articles prevailing on an average during that period in the nearest market in the area where the concerned employee ordinarily resides and the price at which food grains and other articles are supplied to him by his employer; shall be reckoned by it for calculating the overtime wages or the leave wages.
- (3) If any dispute arises in respect of computation of the money value of meals and food grains and other articles made available to an employee by his employer the matter may be referred to the local Inspector of Shops and Establishments by either of the parties to the dispute and his decision thereon shall be final and binding on both the employer and the employee concerned unless it is modified in any manner on appeal. If, however, the order of the Inspector is modified, the order so modified shall be final and binding on both the parties to the dispute and shall not be liable to be questioned in any court of law and be given effect to within such time as may be specified in the order of the appellate authority.
